ABOUT US

About Us

OutFoxed Films started in 2019 when founding members Andy Twyman and Archie Short decided to pool their skills and experience together in pursuit of one main goal - to create original, bold and bespoke content that resonates with clients and audiences.

Whether you're looking to launch a new product, going through a company rebrand or simply want to showcase what you do and how you do it, at OutFoxed Films we'll make sure your brand is seen, your messaging heard and your customers engaged.

We offer an end-to-end service meaning that whatever stage of the process your at, we'll be able to help you navigate from ideation to finished product.

How We Work

AKIN UNDERWEAR

AKIN UNDERWEAR

What sets us apart from other companies is our varied experience. We have over ten years experience working across a multitude of art forms. This includes everything from Theatre, High-End TV, Commercials, Music Videos, Branded content, Immersive Theatre, Events Production, and Short Form Narrative work. Because of this we understand that every pitch is different, every clients requirements varied, so we go out of our way to create bespoke breakdowns, budgets and production estimates for you.

Our process always begins with a conversation, we want to hear about your project, your requirements, how and why you want to engage you audience. Then we go away and create a detailed breakdown tailored to your needs. We endeavour to cater to all budgets and are always open to seeing how we can adapt to make the highest quality work to fit your budget.

We believe that in order to create the best work, you need to work with the best. We have a roster of brilliant, award winning creatives on hand to help deliver the very best results.

Recent Project

Black Isle Brewery

Last summer we were tasked with creating a promotional video for our friends up at Black Isle Brewery in Scotland, Europe's largest organic brewery!

Our brief was to showcase all of the work they do, how ecology, sustainability and nature is fundamental to their brand identity and how it underpins their process of making delicious beer.

We wanted to create something as unique as the delicious beer that Black Isle Brewery produces so came up with the idea of seeing the journey from farm, to brewery to bar through the eyes of nature's greatest workforce - bees!

Shot almost entirely using FPV drones, and working with one of the UK's most prestigious drone companies - Aerial Frontiers, this was one of the most exciting and unique videos we've worked on.

Recent Project

Backyard Cinema

The lovely folks at Backyard Cinema, the UK's first and largest fully themed, immersive cinema, got in touch to ask us to create a commercial promotional video for their winter season. The brief was simple - we want John Lewis Christmas ad energy!

Using Backyard Cinema's wonderful immersive sets, some very talented actors and a bespoke cover track chosen and created by ourselves and our brilliant sound and composition team, we think we hit the nail on the head with the brief. It's cosy, emotional and tells a lovely father daughter story.

It was a joy to go back to our narrative roots and craft this story from scratch. We love nothing more than being able to help our clients find an emotional connection with their audiences!
